Braydon Goldstein is an associate in McDougall Gauley's Saskatoon office. Braydon maintains a broad practice with a focus on litigation.

Overview

Braydon earned his Juris Doctor from the College of Law at the University of Saskatchewan in 2022. He joined McDougall Gauley as a summer student in 2020, and returned as an articling student in 2022. He was called to the Saskatchewan Bar in 2023.

Braydon has experience appearing before the Saskatchewan Provincial Court and the Saskatchewan Court of King's Bench.

Braydon grew up in Saskatoon, and is proud to call it home. Prior to attending law school, Braydon obtained a Bachelor of Arts (Honours) in Regional and Urban Planning from the University of Saskatchewan. In his free time, Braydon enjoys playing hockey, travelling and scuba diving. He is also involved in the rugby community as a player, coach and official.
