

OFFICE

📍 Regina

CONTACT

📞 (306)565-5118

📠 (306)359-0785

✉️ ntryhorn@mcdougallgauley.com

PRACTICE AREAS

Business & Corporate

Immigration

Law

Labour & Employment

Estate

Planning

Real Estate & Development

Civil Litigation

Nicole is an associate at the Regina office who maintains a broad practice.

Overview

Nicole has a broad practice in our Regina office, focusing on corporate commercial law and immigration law.

Nicole joined McDougall Gauley as a summer student in 2019 after her first year of law school. She returned to the firm as an articling student in 2022 after completing her Juris Doctor at the University of Saskatchewan. She was called to the Bar in June of 2023. Nicole received a Certificate in Common Law in French from the University of Ottawa while completing her law degree. Nicole has the ability to practice in both French and English.

Prior to law school, Nicole received her Bachelor of Business Administration and a Certificate in Economics from the University of Regina. Nicole has also earned a Diploma in International Business from ICN Business School in Nancy, France.

Achievements

BAR ADMISSION

- Saskatchewan, 2023

EDUCATION

- Juris Doctor, University of Saskatchewan, 2022

- Certificate of Common Law in French, University of Ottawa, 2022
- Certificate of Economics, University of Regina, 2021
- Bachelors in Business Administration, University of Regina, 2018
- Diploma in International Business, ICN Business School, 2016

MEMBERSHIPS & ASSOCIATIONS

- Canadian Bar Association
- Law Society of Saskatchewan
- Regina Bar Association

COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT

- Carmichael Outreach, Board Member, 2022-2023
 - Saskatchewan Soccer Association, Board member, 2020-2023
-

Insights

MARCH 27, 2024 | Jonathan R. Milani Nicole T.M. Tryhorn

When must an estate produce documents in a will challenge? Applications for production of records in the context of will challenges in Saskatchewan

MARCH 18, 2024 | Alyssa Phen Calen Nixon Nicole T.M. Tryhorn

Pitfalls in Drafting Termination Clauses in Employment Contracts

AUGUST 23, 2023 | Calen Nixon Nicole T.M. Tryhorn

When Employers have a Duty to Inquire and what it entails

JANUARY 23, 2023 | Calen Nixon Nicole T.M. Tryhorn

Test for Family Status Discrimination Clarified by Saskatchewan Court of King's Bench

DECEMBER 13, 2022 | Nicole T.M. Tryhorn

I received a Saskatchewan Affordability Tax Credit cheque for someone who has died. What should I do?
