Munir Abdulhadi is an associate lawyer in the firm's Regina office. Munir assists clients with corporate and commercial matters, transaction advice, governance advice, and dispute resolution.

Overview

Munir Abdulhadi joined McDougall Gauley as an associate after being called to the bar in June, 2026. He currently maintains a general corporate and commercial practice.

Prior to joining McDougall Gauley LLP, Munir served as a Law Clerk to the Justices of the Court of King's Bench for Saskatchewan, where he gained firsthand insight into the judicial decision-making process and administration of justice.

Munir earned his Juris Doctor with distinction from the University of Saskatchewan, College of Law. During law school, Munir was involved with Pro Bono Students Canada, where he researched and presented on legal topics and issues including bankruptcy and wage garnishment.

Munir was raised in Regina, Saskatchewan and is proud to serve his local community.
