Eryn Stewart is an associate in the firm's Regina office. Eryn maintains a broad practice and has a key interest in alternative dispute resolution practices.

Overview

Prior to joining McDougall Gauley LLP as an associate, Eryn articulated as a Law Clerk with the Justices of the Court of King's Bench for Saskatchewan where she developed invaluable research and writing skills and insight into the judicial system.

Eryn earned her Juris Doctor with distinction from the University of Saskatchewan, College of Law. During law school, Eryn was a student editor for the Saskatchewan Law Review and a competitor in the National Family Law Negotiation Competition, where she and her partner earned first place. Before law school, Eryn also completed a Bachelor of Arts with great distinction from the University of Saskatchewan.

In Eryn's spare time, she enjoys farming on her family's farm near Oxbow, Saskatchewan, playing piano, and playing recreational sports.
